	Question	Answer
1	Can a firm from a Non-NATO country participate in the tender?	You may wish to refer to NSPO Procurement Regulations - Paragraph 4.6.1, which states that: Award of Contracts to Non-NATO Member Nations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Contracts shall not be placed with non-NATO Governments or with firms in non-NATO Member Nations or with firms whose legal residence or main production facilities are located outside NATO Member Nations except where the provisions of NSPO Procurement Regulations Paragraph 4.5.2 apply.</li> </ul> Paragraph 4.5.2 of our Procurement Regulations further stipulates that: 'contracts may be let to firms in Nations that are not members of NATO' You are therefore not precluded from participating in the subject tendering exercise but should be aware that in case a valid offer is received from a company located in a NATO country, your offer will not be considered
